Dear Mr. Jaeger:

While in New York last week Milton Caniff suggested that I contact you. I phoned several times but could not reach you.

For the past 30 months I have been researching and writing the Definitive History of the Juvenile Adventure Radio Serials, 1928-56, in cooperation with the Broadcast Pioneers. My objective is to learn everything there is to know about these serials and to publish as many volumes as necessary to delineate and document the subject in an accurate, thorough and entertaining manner. This involves gathering information and material-- photos, sketches, premiums, scripts, transcriptions and tapes-- relating to every aspect of these serials.

In addition to the above work I am presently under assignment with Scholastic Magazines, Inc., New York, to compile an anthology of radio scripts from the classic juvenile adventure serials. I do wish to include a pre1940 Terry script. Milton thought you might be able to help out in this regard or with other Terry material. I had noticed in checking over the old VARITIES that you did control the pre 1940 Terry transcriptions. Bowey's Inc. is now a subsidiary of Capitol Food Industries, checked very thoroughly and could turn up no scripts or discs for me.

I would deeply appreciate any help you could give me on Terry, or any of the other serials with which you were associated.

Kind regards, and continued success in all your endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Joe Hehn

Dear Mr. Hahn:

I hope you will forgive my delay in answering your letter of May 27th, but the key to your request I felt was in the hands of Al Barker, my writer for "Terry & the Pirates", "Don Winslow of the Navy" and "Orphan Annie" in their radio serial form.

I've tried information in the suburbs (where he was 10 years ago) and other means to track him down, but as of now, I haven't uncovered his trail.

Sorry I can't be more helpful but I shall continue to look for him and see if we might be helpful to you.

Milt Caniff said he found an old "Terry" script and sent it on to you! Hope I can add to it.

The owner of Transamerican died two years ago after retiring to Virginia — so that's not a source.

If anything turns up, you shall hear from me.

With all good wishes to you and your interesting enterprise.

Sincerely,

Pete Jaeger

Dear Mr. Jaeger:

Your interest in my research and your kindness in assisting is sincerely appreciated. Thank you.

I, too, have been searching for Al Barker through the Writers Guilds, etc. for some time without success.

You certainly were associated with three outstanding serials. Accurate information relating to your association and experiences with these serials is very important to an authentic documentation.

The Broadcast Pioneers and I feel privileged in having your assistance.

Please convey my warmest regards to Milton Caniff.

Continued success in all your endeavors.

Cordially,

Joe Hehn
